The Da Profundis was also recited for the repose of the souls of all who have fallen in battle. At the Cathedral, high mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Patrick Daly, issisted by the Rev. Joseph H. McMahon.

Special Prayers in Trinity.

EV. DR. MORGAN DIX, rector of Trinity Church, was in charge of the service in the grand old addice yesterday morning, a rare thing for the venerable rector at this time of year. The services were more than usually impressive, and a rge congregation was present. The Rev. Dr. J. Nevitt Steele, vicar of Trinity, who stoned the sermon, said it was peculiarly fitting that such services should be held anch an occasion in Trinity Church, which is the sidest church in this city. DESIDENT M'KINLEY'S proclamation was observed yesterday in St. Patrick's CHEE FOR NHCION'S PRHYERS.

* * * T therefore ask the people of the United States upon next assembling for divine worship in their respective places of meeting to offer thanksgiving to Minighty God, who, in his inscrutable way, is now leading our hosts upon the waters to unscathed triumph; now guiding them in a strange land through the dread shadow of death to success.

* * * With the nation's thanks let there be mingled the nation's prayers that our gallant sons may be shielded from harm allike on the battle field and in the clash of fleets and from suffering and disease. - From President IM: Riniey's Proclamation.

N the churches of the nation vesterday thanks were given for the successes of our victorious army and navy in the conflict with Spain, and prayers were offered up for the speedy restoration of peace. These petitions, uttered alike by the lofty and the lowly, were no ess heartfelt because not all of them were recited in a sacred edifice.

At this time of year in the large cities many of the churches are closed, and their congregations are widely scattered. Therefore, while in many instances the letter of the President's proclamation of July 6 may not have been carried out, the spirit of it was strictly observed everywhere where men and women live and love their country.

In this city special services were held in deference to the Presi-We cannot give the Philippines back to Spain without a large war indemnity, dent's call in many of the churches. Chankful for the Flag.

THE services at the Old First Presbyterian Church, at Fifth avenu street, were thoroughly in sympathy with the spirit of dential proclamation. The Rev. Dr. F. W. Gunsoine, of the Armout Incago, occupied the puipit. "We are thankful." he said, "for a flag so we oppressed. We are thankful that wherever it floats it means freedom and oppressed. We are thankful that we have found new people on Spanish ten, we can teach to love and honor our flag, and yet the Stars and Stripes is no colored rag, if the idea that wove that emblem at the first and hold its three now are forgotten, for nothing can make the Spanish fleet dangerous but a cour moral and political ideas at home."
